

Camp Kawartha Kids Endowment Fund

Carol and Ralph Ingleton have spent most of their lives at Stoney Lake, where they feel a strong connection not only to the community but also to the natural surroundings. Based on their fond memories of summer camps, their love for the environment, and their passion for sustainability and community based living, the decision to create a fund that supports Camp Kawartha was an easy one. To Carol and Ralph, it is important to “Think globally, act locally” and this is what Camp Kawartha is all about.

The mission of Camp Kawartha is to get children outside and engaging with the natural world – their ‘neighbourhood’, as Executive Director, Jacob Rodenburg, refers to it. “The best means of fostering environmental awareness in our children is to immerse them in natural settings, to provide them with opportunities to explore, to play and to learn about the very life systems which sustain us all,” Jacob adds. Camp Kawartha believes that fellowship and community are for everyone. Each year subsidies are provided to more than 100 campers, who would not otherwise be able to attend. As the Camp Kawartha Kids Endowment Fund grows, it will allow Camp Kawartha to bring even more children to the camp, where they will develop leadership skills as well as a sense of community and belonging.

“Every child, no matter their economic circumstances, deserves a chance to feel connected to their environment. We look forward to creating many magical moments with the children Ralph and Carol have chosen to support. We hope you’ll consider doing the same!”

The Community Foundation is a public foundation and registered charity. We partner with donors to invest in community vitality, directing funding to projects that support the long-term wellbeing of the City and County of Peterborough. By investing gifts of all sizes in a pooled endowment fund, we work with donors to build resources that can address our community’s needs. We also work to strengthen the charitable sector by connecting organizations with opportunities for learning and collaboration. And, we promote community knowledge and dialogue around important challenges and trends.
